

SOURCEONE EVENTS ANNOUNCES THE RETIREMENT OF DIRECTOR OF SALES AND SERVICE MIKE FOSTER

SourceOne Events, a national leader in the events and expo industry, announces the retirement of Mike Foster, Director of Sales and Service, after ten years of dedicated leadership and service to the organization.

Foster joined SourceOne Events in 2016, bringing more than 30 years of experience managing corporate accounts within the events industry. Throughout his tenure, he played a key role in the strategic direction, growth, and execution of the company's sales and service initiatives. His commitment to client satisfaction and operational excellence helped strengthen long-term partnerships and further establish SourceOne Events' reputation for delivering exceptional service nationwide.

"Mike's leadership over the past ten years has made a lasting impact on our company," said Mike Bojesen, President of SourceOne Events. "His dedication to our clients and his laser focus on customer satisfaction set the tone for our service culture. We are incredibly grateful for his commitment and the professionalism he brought to our team every day."

Under Foster's leadership, the Sales and Service division experienced continued growth while maintaining the company's core values of responsiveness, reliability, and client-first service. He was instrumental in mentoring team members and refining processes that enhanced both client experience and operational efficiency.

"Mike has been a steady and trusted leader within our organization," said Jackie Bojesen, Vice President & CFO of SourceOne Events. "His experience, integrity, and thoughtful approach to client relationships have contributed significantly to our long-term success. We are deeply appreciative of his years of dedication and the strong foundation he leaves behind."

SourceOne Events extends its sincere gratitude to Mike Foster for his ten years of service and leadership. The company wishes him continued success and fulfillment as he begins his retirement.
